

Job Posting: Application Developer

Description:

SpeechMotion is a provider of business-to-business information technology solutions. We are looking for an experienced individual to work as a team member with others in the fast paced world of software development. This role is primarily responsible for Application Development using a variety of platforms.

Requirements:

We are looking for an experienced developer to add to our team. Our new employee will be responsible for designing enhancements, debugging, functional testing and maintenance for a number of projects.

Primary Skills and Experience:

- C# Microsoft .Net
- ASP.NET - AJAX, JavaScript, CSS, HTML
- IIS and Web Security
- Back-end server applications and batch processing
- Microsoft SQL Server Database
- Mobile applications development for Apple and Android

Good-To-Have:

- Delphi programming experience
- Sybase Advantage experience

Duties May Also Include:

- Troubleshoot programs and scripts in Microsoft programming environment.
- Understand and use Transact SQL in SQL Server environment including commands, functions, queries, views, and stored procedures.

Qualified candidates must have excellent interpersonal and organizational skills, attention to detail and should be able to manage their time efficiently. Experience with computers and computer software is necessary.

This is a full time, permanent salaried position with benefits. This is an on premise position at our facility in Indianapolis, Indiana. June 12, 2012